Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Joe Nadenicek, who is retiring from the Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) after serving the state for more than 30 years; and,

Whereas, Joe began his employment with the state of South Dakota in 1973 in a variety of seasonal and intern positions with the Departments of Corrections, Game, Fish, and Parks, and the Legislative Research Council; and,

Whereas, Joe has rounded out his legal experience by serving as a staff attorney for the Departments of Revenue, Commerce, and DENR; and,

Whereas, While serving as Senior Staff Attorney in DENR, Joe has also served as DENR's representative on the South Dakota Board of Geographic Names, DENR's representative on the State Emergency Response Commission, DENR's Air Quality Small Business Ombudsman, DENR's representative on the Small Business Clean Air Advisory Panel, DENR's liaison with both the Legislative Research Council and the Governor's Chief Legal Counsel, and the Governor appointed member to the Southwestern Low Level Radioactive Waste Commission; and,

Whereas, On January 8, 2016, Joe is retiring to spend more time driving his 2003 6-speed manual, 405 horsepower, Z06 Corvette, and riding his ancient Honda Goldwing motorcycle, and he will be missed by his friends and co-workers in DENR; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim January 8, 2016, as
